If students arrive at any other time, we can arrange a special transfer at an additional cost of $75.

Age

EF International Language Centers are open to everyone aged 16 years and over. Parents and guardians of students under the age of 18 are required to sign a Medical Release Waiver. For students wishing to study in Australia, please note that any accompanying school-aged dependents will be required to pay full fees if they enroll in either a government or non-government school. Students under the age of 18 may be required to pay a guardian fee for certain destinations in Australia and New Zealand.

EF's Learning Guarantee

The learning guarantee only applies to the EF Language Courses Abroad.

Students who choose to continue studying for free under our learning guarantee are responsible for all other costs, including but not limited to accommodation, meals, travel and visa fees.

If visa regulations prohibit a student from extending their stay in their study country, they can continue to study English for free when they return home online at Englishtown.com with teacher-led classes.

iLabs

iLabs are currently available at all EF International Language Centers of English. All EF General courses include access to the iLab upon enrollment, throughout the course and a 3-month online post-course. All EF Intensive courses include access to the iLab upon enrollment, throughout the course and a 6-month online post-course.

My EF™ web service

All EF students will automatically receive an online account for My EF™. Any correspondence, photos and other media used on My EF™ will be considered private and EF will not accept any responsibility for such correspondence or media. Parent/s or legal guardian/s of students under the age of majority traveling with EF give their consent for the student to use the My EF™ web service.

Online One-to-One Package

This is a course supplement, available in combination with any EF Intensive or EF General course at our year-round English EF International Language Centers. The package includes six lessons of 40 minutes in length, with one teacher per student that is conducted online. Students can choose to take the lessons while at the EF International Language Center or can also complete these lessons once returning home.

Course levels

A few weeks before students leave for their course, they will take the EF Level Placement Test online in iLab to assess their language level and ability. The results will be sent to their EF International Language Center. On arrival they will be placed in the correct level at which they should begin their studies. When an EF International Language Center has a General language lesson of five students or fewer, EF reserves the right to reduce the number of lessons per week.

Class Schedules and Duration of Lessons

EF language lessons have a duration of 40 minutes, (except where stated otherwise on individual destination pages). Classes are offered at all EF centers worldwide in a block schedule format on weekdays from 8:00 to 20:00. In some centers, classes may take place on the weekends.

Public Holidays

In the event of a Public Holiday in the host country, the EF International Language Center will be closed. Classes missed for Public Holidays will not be made up at a later date.

Travel and Medical Insurance

All students are required to have medical and accident insurance. We have negotiated tailor-made coverage for EF students with an international company expert in travel insurance - Erika Insurance Ltd. We strongly recommend this policy as it protects the student against expenses incurred through accident or illness, and provides coverage for loss or theft of baggage and personal effects. It also provides coverage against interruption of the student's EF course due to illness and includes Liability and Legal coverage. The cost of this insurance is $77 for the first two weeks, then $29 for each additional week. If the student does not wish to take this policy, they will need to provide EF with a copy in English of the alternative insurance policy they have taken out individually.

Cancellations and Refund Policy

All cancellations and terminations must be made in writing to the nearest EF office, EF local representative or EF Center Director. In all cases the Enrollment Fee, the Courier Fee and the optional Cancellation Protection Fee are non-refundable.

In the event that the World Health Organization (WHO), or an international governmental health authority issues a country-specific travel warning or forbids travel, EF students have the right to postpone or re-book travel within a period of 365 days. If students wish to cancel, the above stated cancellation stipulations apply.

Cancellations

The Course Fee comprises two elements: Tuition Fee (40%) and the Student Services and Accommodation Fee (60%). The Tuition Fee is fully refundable if the student cancels more than 14 days prior to the course start date. Additional refunds will be made from the Student Services and Accommodation Fee as follows:
- If the student cancels 45 days or more before the start of the course the student will receive a full refund, except for the Enrollment Fee and Cancellation Protection Fee.

- If the student cancels less than 45 days prior to departure, EF will retain 40% of the Student Services and Accommodation Fee (max. $500 for USA centers, for all other centers maximum $1000) to cover the cost of pre-paid accommodation and services.

Enrollment Information 2011-2012

EF may retain any actual housing costs incurred and a maximum total of $500 for non-refundable charges, including any application/registration fees, courier fees, travel/cancellation insurance and the housing administration fee.

For courses greater than four weeks: For students who withdraw at any point in the first four weeks, EF may retain the charges applicable to the first four weeks. EF may retain any actual housing costs incurred and a maximum total of $500 for non-refundable charges, including any application/registration fees, courier fees, travel/cancellation insurance and the housing administration fee.

For students who withdraw after the first four weeks but before or at the mid-point of the course, EF may retain a prorated amount of tuition. For students who withdraw after the midpoint, EF may retain all of the tuition and student services charges for the course. EF may retain a maximum total of $500 for non-refundable charges, including any application/registration fees, courier fees, travel/cancellation insurance and the housing administration fee.

Prorated refunds will be calculated on a weekly basis. When determining the number of weeks, EF will consider a partial week the same as if a whole week were completed, provided the student was present at least one day during the scheduled week.

Charges Other Than Tuition:

Included in the course fee is a $400.00 housing administration fee, which is non-refundable. All extra costs, such as books, supplies, equipment, laboratory fees, rentals and any similar charges not included in the tuition, must be clearly stated in the enrollment/application documents. Such charges are not subject to the refund computation but are limited to those materials that are distributed and attributable to the portion of the program in which the student is enrolled.

Students are bound by the terms as defined in any student housing agreements.

Cancellation Protection

EF Cancellation Protection is charged at a one-time fee of $65 and is non-refundable. If students are forced to cancel before departure due to illness, or illness in their immediate family, EF will refund the Course Fee. Cancellation must be given in writing at their local EF office no later than the course start date. A doctor's documentation must be provided within ten days of the claim.

Re-booking Fee

Each time a student requests a change of destination, course dates, or type of accommodation after the initial enrollment, EF will charge a re-booking fee of $100 which is payable immediately. (This does not apply to students who are extending their course.) If a student changes the booking to another destination where fees are lower, the difference in fees between the destinations will not be refunded.

Protection for Our Customers

In order to ensure the well being of our students, EF has established a Code of Conduct, which all students are expected to follow.

Any student claims of course dissatisfaction should be reported to EF destination staff during their period of stay. If these complaints are not satisfied, they should be reported within 30 days after course completion at the student's local EF office.

Under the Commonwealth laws of Australia, sections 27 and 29 of the ESOS Act will be invoked for students who have paid in full if EF is unable to provide services in Australia.

Liability

EF will not be liable in any way to the student in the event of any service, contracted to be supplied by EF, becoming impossible to supply by reason of industrial dispute or other cause outside the control of EF. EF will not be liable for loss, damage, or injury to persons or property howsoever caused, save where the liability is expressly imposed beyond exclusion by statute.

By accepting EF's terms and conditions, the participant accepts that EF freely can use all photography, film and sound material that has been created by EF and or by EF's staff during the trip, without asking further approval from the participant.
